

FAMOUS LECTURER
IN RICHMOND TO-DAYDr. John B. De Motte, of Indiana, to Address Meeting at the Academy of Music.

The second great theatre meeting for men will be held this afternoon under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. The meeting will be addressed by Dr. John B. De Motte, of Indiana, the famous lecturer, who is noted for his widely-known "The Harp of the Senses," or the Secret of Character Building, "Python Eggs and the American Boy," and "A Plea for Purity," or the Problem of Heredity," all three of which have been given in Richmond. Because of this fact, Dr. De Motte will need little introduction to Richmond men. His theme for this afternoon will be "That Magic Word—Youth." The song service will begin promptly at 7:30, the doors of the Academy of Music, where the meeting will be held, opening at 8 o'clock. The Italian Boys will play, and Mr. Hadden S. Watkins will sing. All men are cordially invited.

The Boys' Sunday Afternoon Club will meet at 2:15 o'clock in the association auditorium. The fourth Sunday of each month is the time for the boys to lead their own meeting, and four boys will speak on the subjects—Neatness, Art, Cleanliness, and Boy Purity. Dr. J. H. Wilson, of the Boys' Sunday Club, will play, and Mr. Hadden S. Watkins will sing. The Italian Boys will play, and Mr. Hadden S. Watkins will sing. The Italian Boys will play, and Mr. Hadden S. The Home Mission Society. (For The Times-Dispatch.) At Jubilee service of St. James' Methodist Church, Sunday, November 18th, Rev. J. Sidney Peters, in his forceful address, so replete with pathos and humor, said: "Sacrifice is the basis of great achievement." No organization, perhaps since its beginning, can attest the truth of this assertion more than the Woman's Home Mission Society.

The very definition is sacrifice—it began with sacrifice, and has been widening its sphere of usefulness, overstepping its borders from time to time, through sacrifice. How have the slaty pupils at the Bennett and Bible Training School entered? How have the rescue homes been supported? How have the fifteen schools with a pupilage of 1,314, been maintained? How has the amount of $11,652 more been raised this last quarter than the same quarter last year? How have there gone forth so many young women to enter their lives as deaconesses; to spend their building womanhood in the atmosphere of suffering and degradation? All through sacrifice.

Yet there is a great multitude to-day in our churches who are not shaping their lives by that of Mary of old, who broke the alabaster box on the head of her Saviour! Every day they are breaking their alabaster boxes of time, strength, and money over the head of their god of pleasure. As they rustle by, bedecked with jewels and "society apparel," the question arises: Have they no part in the redemption scheme? Did not the Saviour suffer for them? Was not the great sacrifice "wrapping up" their talents, mind, gold, and requirements? And it will be when the time comes to reckon accounts, "I gave my life for thee, what hast thou given me?"

Contributions are coming in to the prayer service fund, which will be used for the improvement of Ruth Hargrave Seminary at Key West, Fla. Five hundred dollars was donated by Rev. S. P. Wright, of California, the father of our beloved deaconess, Miss Mamie Wright. The students of the Bennett School sent a check through Professor Lewis to a free will offering to the new building. It is an incentive to larger giving and broader living, when we realize that a student body is praying and working for another.

The first national convention of the Deaconesses of America was held in October in Cincinnati, O. The wonderful growth of this movement in the past few years shows the need of such a class of officers in the church. Miss Mamie Wright, of St. Louis, was the Southern Deaconess delegate from M. E. Church.

The marvelous growth of the H. M. Society was beautifully illustrated by a chart at the rally at Clay Street Church, on the 6th inst., by Miss Roberts, from Centenary Church. She made a very interesting and edifying address on the work before an appreciative audience, which was composed of the representatives of the various societies of Richmond. They are projecting new work, and pressing forward with renewed zeal to the accomplishment of great things for the Master.

"She loved her Saviour, and to Him
He lent his precious blood,
To crown his head or grace his name,
No gift too rare she thought.
So let the Saviour be adored,
And not the poor, despised;
Give to the hungry from your board,
But all give all to Christ."

A LIBRARY AS MEMORIAL
TO DR. CHARLES L. COCKE

DR. CHARLES L. COCKE.

The Alumni Association Contributed Liberally and the Executive Committee of the Memorial Association Will Build Library in the Spring.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HOLLINS, VA., November 24.—A library building will be erected at Hollins Institute as a memorial to the late Dr. Charles L. Cocke, its founder, and many years principal.

Dr. Cocke died May 4, 1901. There was a movement set on foot to build a monument to his memory by the alumnae. Knowing so well that no marble shaft erected in his memory would have met his approval, and knowing that the next thing in his plans was for the good of those who sought higher education at Hollins, there was no delay in deciding to a library building was the most appropriate form as a memorial.

The dollars poured in, one dollar from many, a few tens and an occasional fifty, and today $3,000 are bearing interest in bank, and handsome donations from several, subject to the call of the Memorial Association, have recently come in. Mrs. Thomas E. Hagby, of West Point, Va., president of the Alumnae Association, spent a few days last week at Hollins on business relative to this matter.

After a satisfactory meeting with the local chapter of this association, and another meeting with the executive board of the Memorial Association, it has been given out that the library building will be begun in the early spring, and the work rapidly pushed to completion.

While the money is practically in sight, the idea is that energies shall not be slackened, and all who want to be enrolled as having a hand in this enterprise, shall respond at once. The exact location of the building has not as yet been decided upon.

In the meantime the library is growing in quantity and quality of books. There are about 3,000 valuable volumes on the shelves now, with promises of many more for the new building.

In addition to suitable furnishing for the new library building, there is in hand a magnificent oil painting of Dr. Cocke presented by Hollins alumnae on the occasion of the celebration of his golden wedding.

FIREBUG SENT ON.

Richmond Detectives Dun Down an Incendiary.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
KEELINGS, PITTSBURGH COUNTY, VA., November 24.—Jacob Hartnett, a Pennsylvania firebug, was sent to the grand jury Wednesday.

Mr. Joel M. Shelton, a prominent tobacco farmer near here, had his tobacco packing barn containing about eight thousand pounds of tobacco, and full assortment of farming implements burned the night of November 1st, entailing a loss of upwards of $2,000. It was determined by Mr. Shelton that the fire must have been of an incendiary origin, and an operative of the Richmond National Detective Agency, of which A. M. Brownell is general manager, was sent here to investigate it, and it was developed that there were parties in the neighborhood who had openly made threats against Mr. Shelton for his active work in aiding in the breaking up of several "blind tigers" in this community.

After a full investigation, the detective succeeded in gathering evidence that caused the arrest of Jacob Hartnett, charged with the burning, and Wednesday of this week he was given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate W. B. Hart, Commonwealth's Attorney Hughes Dillard being present, as well as Robert J. C. Shelton, and Hartnett was sent on to the December grand jury term of the Circuit Court.

It was developed at the hearing that the investigation through detective sources was made by direction of the Commissioner of Insurance of Virginia, Colonel Joseph Button.

UPPER HANOVER

ROCKVILLE, HANOVER CO., VA., November 24.—Mrs. E. R. Cocke died relatives in Gloucester and Louisa counties last week.

Mrs. Dodge, of Ashland, visited her daughter near here this week.

At a called meeting of Berea Baptist Church on the 18th inst., the Rev. A. W. McDaniel, of Galax, Va., was extended a call to become permanent pastor of the church. Rev. Ben C. Jones has been supporting the church since the resignation of Rev. L. W. Smith in September.

Misses Ola B. C. Sims and Mary McGeorge, of Hylas, will be the guests of the Misses Cocke this week.

The Silver Lining.

"Your nephew, that's studying to be a doctor."

"Well, now, he ain't by any means as useless as you'd naturally think," philosophically said honest Farmer Hornsbeak. "When he comes home on a vacation I make him not only kill the chickens, as occasion arises, but dress 'em into the bargain; and what little knowledge he has already got of surgery enables him to do a more artistic job than any of the rest of us can do, in spite of all the practice we have had in an unscientific way. A college education, though, has its bright side, even if it does cost considerable—"

The License Laws.

Can an incorporated town in Virginia charge a town license to an agent for selling fertilizers, when the same agent is not assessed by State or county authorities for a license? Said agent does not buy any fertilizers, and sells only for the manufacturers of the fertilizers as their agent, to receive and deliver their shipments. Some of the fertilizers are made in Virginia and others in different States.

J. W. ROBERTS.

Section 194 of the Code of 1904 provides: "In addition to the State tax on any license, the council of any city or town may, when anything for which a license is so required is to be done within the city or town, impose a tax for the privilege."

THE ONE MEDICINE
OLD PEOPLE NEED

MR. JOSIAH ZEITLIN.

Mr. Josiah Zeitlin, 101 years old July, 1906, lives with his daughter, Mrs. Isaac Krinsky, Brooklyn.

Mr. Zeitlin was a prominent business man in his native land, Poland, many years. In 1882 he retired and came to this country.

He says that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has prolonged his life, and is the medicine to restore health and vigor in old people.

He writes:

"Although I was 101 years old on July 3d last, I still feel that I am good for several years. I was born at Lodz, in Poland, and after a lengthy business life in the old land, came to this country in 1882 to reside with my daughter. I have used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for many years, and find it very beneficial. It invigorates and gives me strength. I feel that it has helped me to live the 101 years. It seems to be the very medicine old people need to restore their failing health and strength."—Josiah Zeitlin, 101 Lexington Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.—August 19, 1906.

Mr. Zeitlin is one of the many thousands of men and women throughout the United States who owe their vigor, strength and long life to the great Tonic Stimulant and Restorer of Youth, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and join in extolling its merits.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic, builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces, it makes digestion perfect and enables you to get from the food you eat the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children, as it is a food already digested. It strengthens the system, is a promoter of good health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey contains no fusel oil, and is the only whiskey that is recognized as a medicine. This is a guarantee.

Sold by all druggists and grocers, or direct, in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1. Insist on the genuine, and see that the "Old Chemist" trade-mark is on the label. Beware of refilled bottles and spurious malt whiskey substitutes offered for sale by unreliable dealers. They are positively harmful and will not cure. Medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

lege of doing the same, and require a license to be obtained therefor. ***

The State imposes no license tax on agents selling fertilizers for the manufacturers, but does impose a tax of fifteen cents per ton on all fertilizers manufactured or sold in the State; and in the act regulating the manufacture and sale of fertilizers, this tax is called a license tax.

It would seem, therefore, that under the general law (given above) incorporated towns may have authority to impose a license tax for the manufacture or sale of fertilizers within the town; but the law is not free from ambiguity, and the right of towns to do so under the general law is by no means clear. The question has not been settled by the courts, and until there is an adjudication of the question no positive answer can be given.

Postal Laws.

1. Is it lawful for a rural carrier to pay his deputy a stipulated amount when the latter acts for him, or should the deputy receive exactly what he receives?
2. Can the carrier take his vacation a day or two at a time, or should he take it all at one time?
3. What should the substitute receive while his principal is taking his vacation?
A SUBSCRIBER.

A substitute rural letter carrier, who performs service for a regular carrier, absent on his vacation, is entitled to pay at the rate of $60 per annum. When a regular carrier is absent without pay, the substitute carrier receives the same salary as the regular carrier, and is paid by the regular carrier himself.

A regular carrier may take his vacation a day or two at a time, with the consent of the postmaster from whose office he serves, provided that the services of the bonded substitute are available to fill his place.

High School Course.

Please tell me whether the high school course in Richmond, Norfolk or Lynchburg fits a girl for entrance at Randolph-Macon Woman's College; how the Lynchburg High School ranks, and the charge in the Richmond school for non-resident pupils.
W. C. L.

The public schools of Lynchburg are regarded to be equal to any in Virginia. The graduate course in the high school there is sufficient for entrance at the Woman's College. The same is true of the high school in Norfolk, and practically of the Richmond school. Tuition for non-resident is $40 per session of nine months in the Richmond school.

The Poll Tax.

Kindly answer the following in your queries:
First, if a man has lived in this county for three years and his name has been assessed until last February (1906), and he pays that tax this fall, will he not be able to vote in the next spring election? Second, kindly explain about this part of the law where a man has to pay three years' taxes before he can vote: Is he the man that has never been assessed or the man that owes for three years? Third, if a voter can show his poll-tax and is registered six months before the general election and his tax paid six months before also, can the judges say he can't vote from the fact that the tax collector failed to send in his name to the registrar within a length of time before the election with the other voters? Fourth, can you tell me what kind of a form a voter has to make out when he applies to the registrar to be registered, as you have to make out in your own hand-writing before the registrar?

Thanking you in advance,
ACCOMAC VOTER.

1. and 2. Unless exempt, he must personally pay at least six months prior to the election all State poll-taxes assessed, or ASSESSABLE, against him, during the three years next preceding that in which he offers to vote.

3. No man can vote on his tax receipt. He must see to it that his name is entered on the list prepared by the treasurer or all persons who have paid their poll-taxes according to the requirements of the law. This list is required to be posted at the voting precinct well in advance of election, and if the name of any qualified voter does not appear he may make application to the judge and have his name listed. The revised list is furnished to judges of election, and they are required to adhere to it strictly and vote no man whose name does not appear, no matter if he does show his tax receipts. It is of vital importance, therefore, that voters who have paid their poll-taxes should see that their names are listed.

4. He simply makes application to register in his own hand-writing, without aid, suggestion or memorandum, in the presence of the registrar, stating in his application his name, age, date and place of birth, residence and occupation at the time and for two years next preceding, and whether he has previously voted, and if so, the State, county and precinct in which he voted last.
